Directions: Based on the information collected in your interview, compose a reflective essay that reflects upon the interview and answers the following questions:

- What did you learn about the role money plays in life?
- What things surprised or impressed you?
- What changes did your interviewee recommend for you that are different from the choices they made? Was there anything that you didn't agree with? If so, explain.
- Based upon your interview, do you plan to change your current or future money management practices?
- What changes, if any, have occurred in your perceptions of the person you interviewed?
- What is the advice your interviewees would like to share with the youth of today?
